

community information

serving your community

HALTON WOMEN'S PLACE

answering phones, doing activities with children, and assisting with house keeping.

Administration volunteers assist with data entry, photocopying, and small projects. Committee volunteers include the Board of Directors, Auction Planning Committee, Scarecrow Ball Planning Committee, and Business Advisory in both Burlington and Milton. The Business Advisory Committee is made up of local businesses who want to be involved and help make a difference, while benefiting from excellent networking opportunities. The Auction Committee, Golf Tournament Committee, and Scarecrow Ball Committee assist with the planning of events that help to raise $420,000 that keeps our doors open. Halton Women's Place would like to salute the wonderful volunteers, past and present who have made the organization a safe alternative for victims of violence. The time they take helps Halton Women's Place to build healthy relationships, which in turn leads to healthy communities.

Visit www.haltonwomensplace.com.

INFORMATION OAKVILLE

The information contained in the community information section of this guide is supplied by Information Oakville, a department of the Oakville Public Library which has been providing free, confidential information on, and referral to, services in the Oakville community for more than 30 years. The Halton Community Services Database maintained by Information Oakville and the other Halton Community

Information Centres is available online for more information on any services listed in this section, and much more.

Visit www.search.hipinfo.info.

Information Oakville and its regional partners also publish the Halton Community Services Directory. This is a valuable tool for all service providers. The 2007 edition will be available for sale by the end of 2006. Coming soon to Oakville: 211 service! 211 is an easy to remember, non-emergency number that provides quick access to information and referral to community, health, government and social services. It will be available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. To learn more, visit www.halton.ca/services/211. Information Oakville and partners will be providing their comprehensive database to support this service. Want to find out about events in the area? Visit the Oakville Events Calendar. We also encourage the community to submit their own events for consideration in the calendar. Visit www.Oakville-Events.info. Information Oakville, a service of the Oakville Public Library, 120 Navy Street, Oakville 905-815-2046 www.informationoakville.org

KIDS HELP PHONE

Kids Help Phone is Canada's only toll-free, anonymous, confidential and bilingual phone service that enables young people to call 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, from anywhere in Canada and talk to professional counselors. Each week Kids Help Phone receives thousands of calls on tough issues like depression, suicide, pregnancy, parental divorce, parent/child conflict, substance abuse, physical and sexual abuse. Visit the website at <http://kidshelp.sympatico.ca> or call 1-800-668-6868.

KIWANIS CLUB OF OAKVILLE

The Kiwanis Club of Oakville is a group of volunteers who are dedicated to helping one child and one community at a time. Since 1951, service-minded volunteers have helped any community in need by collecting donations of any kind. To make a donation contact The Kiwanis Club of Oakville, at 905-827-7538 or visit www.oakvillekiwanis.com.

LIONS CLUB OF OAKVILLE

The Lions Club of Oakville's missions include raising money to assist agencies that provide public service such as the Oakville-Trafalgar Memorial Hospital and Guide Dogs facility. We also give our ongoing support to physically challenged young individuals for such events as sporting matches, which they could not otherwise attend. We pride ourselves on our many achievements and fundraising. If you have any questions or comments, please contact webmaster@oakvillelions.org or call 905-844-3142.

MADD HALTON/ PEEL CHAPTER

The MADD Halton/Peel Region Chapter (Mothers Against Drunk Driving) was formed in 1993. We are one of more than 80 chapters across Canada each made up of concerned citizens and victims. MADD's mission is to stop impaired driving and to support victims of this violent crime. We help victims and their families understand

MADD CON'T ON NEXT PAGE

Serving South Halton
"We Listen, We Care"

(905) 849-4541

This Service is Confidential

United Way
Member Agency