

community information

servicing your community

MADD HALTON/ PEEL CHAPTER

the legal system by providing them with information about the judicial process, clarifying victim's rights, attending court and helping with Victim Impact Statements. We also work within the school boards by involving students in our annual poster/ essay writing contest using this as a communications tool to bring this important message home to the families. As well, we provide motivational media presentation to promote an effective safe driving message to youth. These high tech presentations are designed to communicate anti-substance abuse and positive lifestyle messages in a language today's teenagers can understand and relate to. We are involved at the local level by working with law enforcement working RIDE Spot Check programs and community service groups to find a solution to the drunk driving problem. Visit www.maddhalton.ca or contact us at 905-844-0096 or info@maddhalton.ca. Volunteers are always needed and appreciated.

MAY COURT CLUB OF OAKVILLE

Lady Aberdeen, who also founded the Victorian Order of Nurses and the Council of Women, founded the May Court Club in 1898. The May Court Club of Oakville (est. 1957) is a dedicated group of women striving to develop and implement a high standard or excellence by providing service and raising funds to meet the changing needs in the Halton region. Support is given to developing, worthwhile programs, registered charities, and Scholarship funds. The goal of the May Court Club of Oakville is to be the role model for volunteering and to provide support services, enabling the recipients in the community to enjoy a better quality of life. The May Court Club of Oakville can be contacted through their website: www.may-court.ca

OAKVILLE CENTRE FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

The Oakville Centre for the Performing Arts is home to the best local and international performing arts. Nestled in the beautiful downtown harbor area, The Oakville Centre has been host to such stars as Rita MacNeil, Andrew Phillippe Gagnon, Michael Burgess, and more. The 470-seat auditorium provides a comfortable and intimate setting - no seat is more than 55 feet from the stage. More than 100,000 people come through our doors each year to participate in the excitement of live entertainment. Our 1,000 Big Ticket members enjoy discounts on show tickets and selected retailers, as well as the first chance for the best seats in the house. For more information call the Box Office at 905-815-2021, weekdays noon to 5 p.m.; Saturdays 2 to 5 p.m. or visit our website at www.oc4pa.com.

THE OAKVILLE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Oakville Chamber of Commerce is Oakville's leading business organization since 1954. It helps growing businesses by promoting products and services, developing key business leads, and lobbying the government for business interests. With more than 1,000 Member companies, 80 events per year, 16 committees, a monthly magazine, and a weekly newsletter, the Oakville Chamber of Commerce can help your business grow. The Oakville Chamber of Commerce can be contacted through their website: www.oakvillechamber.com

OAKVILLE & DISTRICT HUMANE SOCIETY

The Oakville & District Humane Society is a non-profit charitable organization that assists animals in Oakville and Milton. The animals that come through the doors of the shelter have not always had the best beginnings. Some are found wandering on the streets, others are rescued from dangerous situations, their owners bring some to the shelter, and a small percentage is abused. The services provided by the Oakville & District Humane Society include; adoptions, lost & found, animal control, humane education, pet therapy, licensing, cremation, animal ambulance, animal cruelty investigation and a violence prevention service. For more information, visit our website at www.oakville-humane.ca or call 905-845-1551.

Michaels Back Door

RESTAURANT

1715 Lakeshore Road West, Mississauga
www.michaelsbackdoor.com
 905.822.5751

DISCOVER OAKVILLE