servicing your community

CANADIAN CANCER SOCIETY

The Canadian Cancer Society is a national, community-based organization of volunteers, whose mission is the eradication of cancer and the enhancement of the quality of life of people living with cancer. The Canadian Cancer Society, in partnership with the National Cancer Institute of Canada, achieves its missions through research, education, patient services, and advocacy for healthy public policy. Call 905-845-5231 or 1-888-939-3333.

CANADIAN RED CROSS

Wherever there is a child to be comforted, a heart to be warmed, a tummy to be filled, a family to be sheltered, or a hurt to be healed, you'll see the Red Cross. When life has spun out of control, you'll see the Red Cross, in action. Anytime, anywhere, Red Cross programs and services improve the lives of vulnerable people by mobilizing the power of humanity. With the voluntary contributions and service of over 130 volunteers, at all levels ranging from youth, service delivery and governance volunteers, as well as the generosity and financial support of donors, the Oakville Branch of The Canadian Red Cross Society is able to provide its services including: First Aid, Transportation, Home Healthcare Equipment Services, Disaster Services (Personal Disaster Assistance) and International Services. For additional information on the programs and services available within Oakville, please contact us at the Oakville Branch at (905) 845-5241 or via email at oakville@redcross.ca

COMMUNITY LIVING

Community Living Oakville is a non-profit organization established in 1954. The agency supports persons with developmental disabilities in various aspects of their lives. Support is offered by way of employment, adult day programs and home supports throughout the community. Volunteers play a valuable role in the success of our programs. Volunteering is available for students to complete placements, and for seniors and interested persons. Located at 301 Wycroft Rd. For more information call 905-844-0146 or visit www.oakcl.org.

CNIB

The Canadian National Institute for the Blind (CNIB) is a private, voluntary, not-for-profit organization providing rehabilitation and library services to blind, visually impaired and deaf blind persons across Canada. Services include: Counseling and Referral, Library Services, Orientation and Mobility, Rehabilitation Teaching, Vision Rehabilitation, Technical Aids, and Volunteer Services. 905-275-5332.

CRIME STOPPERS

Crime Stoppers of Halton Inc. is a civilian volunteer-managed incorporated company that exists to give people a means of communicating crime-solving information anonymously. This information is passed along to the police to help solve outstanding cases. Those providing tips that lead to arrests are paid cash rewards from $50 to $1,000, depending on the seriousness of the crime and other factors. Calls to Crime Stoppers' tips lines are answered 24 hours a day, every day. Call 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).
