DISCOVER OAKVILLE

Day in Oakville... now that is a fantastic assignment. What better way is there to discover all that Oakville has to offer than to get out and enjoy it first-hand.

Follow me on my journey discovering some great community hotspots, Oakville landmarks and fabulous dining and shopping! My day out in Oakville starts now!

Enjoying a day in Oakville can be done alone, with family or even with friends. I decided to bring along my fiancé, Tony. Since we don't live here in Oakville, this was a great time to convince him that we should think about making the move...
