

Get out and experience oakville

As a resident of Oakville, you have probably been downtown, attended festivals and admired the harbours. But have you been on a tour at Erchless Estate? Have you realized the education opportunities Oakville offers? Have you attended an Oakville Blades game?

Although you reside in Oakville, you may not have experienced some of these places and things.

If you haven't - these helpful pages will give you important information about your community and hopefully, inspire you to get out and actually experience the things you haven't yet.

If you have been to these Oakville landmarks - then we hope these pages will motivate you to re-discover Oakville again and again.
